Or recharge your batteries in a spa resort with optimum connections to the intercity express railway network and the German motorway system with all the flair of a big city? Bad Wilhelmshöhe-Kassel combines the benefits of a spa with all the comforts of a city. Situated directly next to Europe's largest mountain park – Wilhelmshöhe – and watched over by Hercules, an eight metre high sculpture which is also Kassel's landmark, lies the tranquil spa district of Bad Wilhelmshöhe-Kassel. Even Bismarck's personal physician wrote that every single breath taken here is worth a silver coin.

Inspiration by day and night

If you are an aficionado of exhibitions and museums, Kassel is certainly the place for you – Kassel has the third highest density of museums in the whole of Germany.

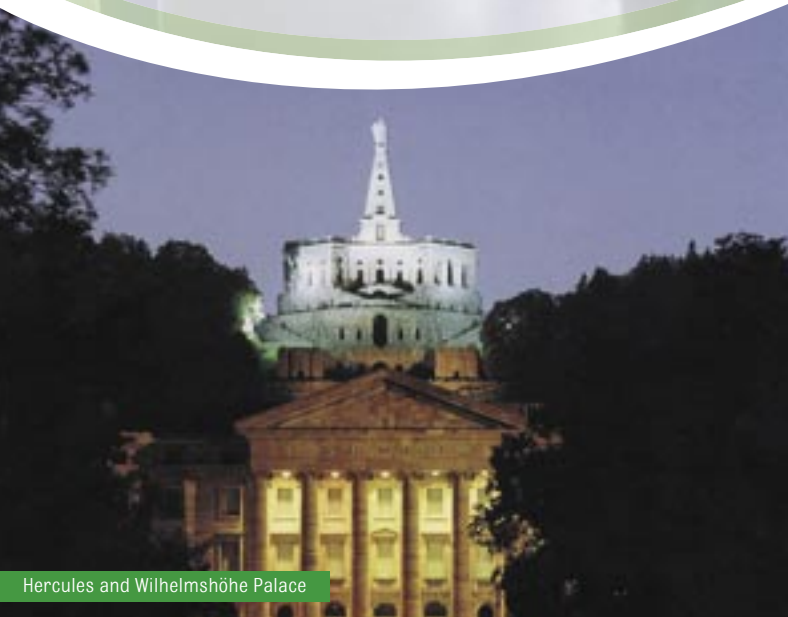

In the evening you will find plenty of excitement and fun at the casino in the spa district, numerous theatres and stages, as well as many pubs, bars and clubs – not to mention Kassel's extensive variety of events and culture.

Well cared for in the region

Bad Wilhelmshöhe-Kassel is situated in a relaxing wood-covered region directly beside Forest Habichtswald. For nature lovers there are many wonderful and interesting sights to discover.

The region's lakes and rivers entice visitors to make excursions and indulge in many other activities – for those who prefer a more fairy tale landscape there are many small towns and villages in the Kassel region which served as a model for Grimms' fairy tales, like the Sleeping Beauty castle of Sababurg.

No matter whether you wish to travel by car or ICE-Railway – Bad Wilhelmshöhe-Kassel has excellent connections to the traffic network. A trip to Kassel city centre is also worthwhile – the numerous shopping malls in the pedestrian precinct are just made for window shopping and can be reached from the spa district in just a few minutes by car or tramcar.
